

FLAT OUT LIKE APRIL 2002

WELCOME TO SHACKLE DAY MK XII. Niel's first mention in FOK was in Feb 83 when, as a visitor, he carded 50 points off 35. Over the next 69 months he became our most constant and longest running visitor - eventually selecting a sheet of Butchers Paper and taking out Lizard citizenship in Nov 88. We thank him for his sponsorship and consider him a good each-way bet to win the event.

SAINT PATRICK'S DAY coincided with our 3rd Sunday so President John O'Meara opened the meeting by giving the Lizard a good shot of Guinness.

TIM SMITH welcomed the visitors and then imparted a few Ringer thoughts about the GRIZZ.

GORDON DONATH, our new octogenarian, was called on stage to receive a cake with candle — whereupon the Pres, got on with the Prize giving.

MICHAEL HARRISON had one of his rare wins. He had to shoot 7 over the card to earn 36 points and a 36 pointer has not won the day since Neil Shackle beat Dave Rayner on a countback in July 90. Michael's previous success was in Oct 2000 when he came in with 45 points off 6 — a round of Two UNDER THE CARD!

VISITOR Gerry Manderson cruised to the pay window on day one.

ENZO TOPPANO, Bradman the previous month, qualified for the title again by losing on countback with Barry Winterton.

FINES, same were,

Dawson Carroll

booking his return flight to Ireland without permission from the Committee for his contribution to the Zimbabwean election causing a major traffic jam when he stopped his car in peak hour to challenge a pedestrian to produce his Lizard.

Gerry Mander

John O'Meara

GEOFF WARREN, following another stint in New Zealand, was fined for coming back - but was thoughtful enough to bring back a fresh supply of NZ 5 cent pieces.
