MAY 2002

WELCOME to John O'Meara's PRESIDENTS DAY. John is enjoying his stint in the chair - his only concerns at his late stage are the gathering and engraving of the multitude of annual trophies plus the organisation and conduct of the AGM. John will round off another successful year for the club when he awards the PADDOE for 2001-2 and presents THE LIZARDS to our 57th president

SHACKLE DAY, with 21 members and 5 visitors, produced the following results:

FINES, some were:

Wal Hill wearing his Lizars shirt whilst painting; bringing a nearly empty gas bottle complete with cob webs and a giant spider; and standing on the 2nd tee, clutching shiny new driver, waiting to hit off and after his shot wishing he was still waiting.

Hart raving on continuously about sinking a 50 foot putt on the 16th.

Postie saying to new visitor Peter McKinn "Sorry! I have forgotten your name". No wonder, he had never seen him before.

THE AGM is on the drawing board for 2nd July at the Dee Why RSL Club. More information as it comes to hand
