SEPTEMBER, 2002

WELCOME TO WARNER DAY MK XIV. Andrew LM is our genial host, so be prepared for a close encounter of the 9th kind with the dreaded Custard Ball.

We join with Andrew to celebrate this, the first day of his 23rd year of membership, and hope^{he} is good for another 23 years of goodwill and energetic innovative input.

Raffle Andy Warner # 79

MICHAEL MORGAN, after a rash of 2nd places, notched up his second win in 5 months. Well played Michael.

PRESIDENT NEIL took his 3rd take away since turning his first divot with Lizards 2 years ago.

GERRY MANDERSON found his own way back to the flag window - having been there the previous month.

THE DONORS new prize for nearest the pin, second shot, on the 252 m 7^m, with the glassy green sloping away from the player, was a bit rich for the 19 and overs - but the more practiced Jim Small nailed it. Brilliant shot Jim.

FINES, some were:

Garry Bird km

Taking home a 2603 boxed rock instead of his White Heather Trophy.

Alan Hight

Having more waggles than Sergio Garcia when addressing the ball.

Wal Hill

Being Assistant Caterer and complaining about the food.

Hart Schwarz

When asked why he brought so much ham for the lunches replied "Because it is raining"

Dennis + Gary
Castle

When asked why they were wearing identical rain jackets replied "In case we mix them up"
