Seasons Greetings

THE PRESIDENT WISHES THE MEMBERS, VISITORS
AND ALL OUR READERS IN AUSTRALIA AND OVERSEAS, A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

WELCOME back to DAWSON CARROLL, today's donor and instigator of the coveted Dawson Carroll Trophy. This marks his 15th circumnavigation of the globe to enjoy the day at Avalon.

The current temperature in his hometown is 0 to 4 degrees C — that's not too bad — Moscow, on the same lat of linatude is - 14 to - 9 degrees C. Had Dawson been a muscovite he would probably be living here, conducting his business with a laptop.

The DAWSON CARROLL CUP should be on display in the shed and ready to change hands at the conclusion of play.

Winners of the event over the past few years have been

1999 Colin Lacey 44 points off 32

2000 Frank van Heyninigan 42 points off 23

2001 Alan Lewis 44 points off 13

Good Luck to today's field.

TODAY is BRING A GIFT - RECEIVE A GIFT for Members and Visitors. Last minute gifts are available at Vicki's Pro Shop. Wrapping paper is available in the Shed.

STABLEFORD MULTIPLIER WINNING PAIR John O'Meara and Jake Small 94 points

AIRIES Garry Bird L.M. and Wal Hill

RAFFLE No C80 Stretch

NOEL QUINLAN, usually well placed in the bunch as they round the home turn, celebrated his first win for 15 months.

CADET JAKE SMALL has been eroding his 59 free shots over the past couple of years. In recent time he has grown 30cm, put on a bit of beef around his chest, and is demolishing his handicap in chunks - at this rate he will be playing in the high 30's by next winter. Keep up the good work Jake!

WAL HILL, by shaving his hirsute upper lip and investing in a new set of tats, makes Russell Crowe look like part of the sweepings from the Closseum.

TONY DELLA, having been given a "send-off", complete with bottle of Scotch and tear-jerker card, signed by all and sundry, plus a departing downer, advised the bereft brethren he was not taking up residence in his new home at 54 Valleta Street, Moss Vale till January, and would be attending the 2002 Christmas Carroll celebrations!

Fines, some were:

Jake a non drinker and still managing to spill Lizards beer.

Hart when asked what he scored on a hole replied "I had a V for vipe".

John O'Meara washing his hands with the ice in the Esky

Stretch and posing, during the meeting, as African Queens on their thrones, on the back of Stretch's truck.

NEXT MONTH is CAPTAIN . HANDICAPPERS DAY, a good day to bring a visitor or two.
