MAY 2003

WELCOME to NEIL WINTERSON'S PRESIDENT'S DAY - the day heralds the beginning of the end of another enjoyable year - with the President himself choreographing a good slab of the proceedings. A Lizard year includes a dozen Donor driven monthly events, as well as an array of 13 or more competitions for the perennial spit, polish and engraved trophies, some entailing travel to Port Macquarie, Jamboos, Calderwood, Mangrove Mountain and where ever. At this late stage there are still 5 annual trophies up for grabs and the AGM is taking shape on the drawing board.

THE AGM is set down for Tue. 1 July at the DY RSH - more details as they come to light.

BRADMAN LIZARDS Colin Lacey 21 30 points

VISITORS John Surplice 10 35 points

Jim Smith, one of the top 4 for attendance and reennes on the field, bagged his 3rd win in exactly 4 years! - so don't be too dejected if you have not scooped the pool in the past 12 months.

Michael Harrison 7, who was not tipped to beat Garry Bird 22 as he would have to par the course to have a chance, fired a round of 1 over the card while Garry finished 2 over his handicap, which left too much space for Michael to score on the right holes in the Lindenberg. Well played Michael.

JOHN SURPLUS 10 was pleased with his 35 points and visitors prize, however, with only 2 visitors competing, John had to don the Bradmans hat for the rest of the day.

FINES SOME WERE:

John Surplus + Garry Bird spending the morning telling each other about their recent holes-in-one.

Michael Harrison + President inviting a visitor and making him drive them to Lizards.

Ian Massey "Credit fine" for being a stooge.

Manfred Wagner impersonating the Mastercard ad. by covering himself with mud.

Please return annual trophies next month for engraving and reissue in July.

Jan Massey stating "I don't think it is going to rain - or is it"?

Colin Lacey spending the front nine hitting mud pies up the fairway
