NOVEMBER 2004

WELCOME to MORGAN - MOONEY DAY Mk VI, the homecoming of the PORT MACQUARIE survivors and the return of DAWSON CARROLL from Ireland.

Mooney

DONORS Chris and Michael were our 49th and 51st presidents and prolific caterers in the 90's. Rarely seen on the monthly winner's dais, they are invariably in the first bunch past the post and are well placed in the Championship points score. We thank them for their donorship today.

CASTLE HILL PLATE DAY, with 21 members and 3 visitors, produced the following results:

PUTTING COMPETITION	John O'Meara - 29 putts

JOHN O'MEARA carded a 45 pointer in February and was swamped by outsider Gary Castle – Gary won on a countback. On this occasion he scored 42 and was blown out of the water and beached by Hart Schwarz.

HART won in June with a 36 pointer, and before that in June '01. He was listed on the TAB at 66 to 1, and looked normal as he walked to the 1st tee – then, from the time he teed up and whacked the ball down the centre, on its way to a 4 pointer, he resembled a Bernhard Langer clone. Four pointers, 3's and a 5 pointer just rolled off his club. He arrived at the half-way-house for a quick snack and a beer, with a nearest the pin on the 5th and a score of 28! The second nine was a breeze, a cool 20 points, including a slot and a nearest the pin within a couple of gum leaves of a hole-in-one on the 18th.

CONGRATULATIONS HART – you had more fun in one round that Kostya Tsyzyu had in three.

Hart and John played as a pair in a private match vs the hard to beat Jim Small and Andy Warner – the prize being a No 1 slap up breakfast in Port Macquarie. Hart & John blitzed the favourites 90 to 67.

ROY DONALD racked up his 3rd consecutive visitor's win. He won't be with us today; he is holidaying in New Zealand.

DAVE DUNWORTH was back at Lizards after a spell – last time we saw him was when he was runner up to Ken Bond in 1992. After a dismal 7 for the 1st nine he won the best back nine with 23 points. He was given a fines tin to keep him out of mischief during the meeting.

BILL SHEEHAN LM will be upgraded to octogenarian status tomorrow and is currently in the Foster-Tuncurry area with his family, who have rented a couple of holiday cottages and are drumming up a corroboree to celebrate the event. We wish Bill a Happy Birthday.

A SPECIAL WELCOME to our most travelled member, Dawson Carroll, who has completed his seventeenth trip to Australia to play with us today and be donor next month on Christmas Carroll Day.
