JANUARY 2006

A HAPPY, HEALTHY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

WELCOME TO NEIL WINTERTON'S CAPTAIN/HANDICAPPER'S DAY. Neil has the Club Captain's job well in hand – the Port Macquarie sortie, with golfing spread over half a dozen courses up and down the coast, was enjoyed by the players without a hitch.

The four courses involved in the Jamberoo excursion are standing by with red carpets at the ready. Members to arrange their own accommodation. Neil is ably assisted by Manfred, who is half way though his sixth year in the Captain/Handicapping Department!

CHRISTMAS CARROLL DAY, with 25 Lizards and 2 visitors, produced the following scores:

1st LIZARDS		Colin Lacey - 45 points off 22 handicap
2nd LIZARDS		Glenn Castle - 40 points off 33 handicap
1st VISITORS		Terry Humes - 35 points off 38 handicap

RAFFLE		D40 – Terry Humes
DAWSON CARROLL CUP 2005		Colin Lacey plus Chivas Regal

COLIN LACEY swept in out of the blue, picked up the nearest the pins on the 1st and 3rd, amassed 25 points on the back nine, returned the highest recorded monthly score since April and had no reason to invoke "HawkEye" to confirm his win. Congratulations to our President, who could not have picked a better day to go berserk with a normal set of clubs.

into the paddock amid tumultuous applause. Bad luck – but a memorable Lizard attempt to give it a good shake. Well done Stretch.

TERRY HUMES made his first dent in the Visitor's trophies in Sept, and has fronted up to the pay window on each subsequent attendance. Last month he was 1st in Visitor's, qualified for the Bradman downer and won the raffle. Terry would be pleased if the members could recruit some opposition in the visitor's ranks.

JIM SMALL, when reminded of his famous Bradman result in Dec '04 stated "If I win THAT HAT today I won't wear it. I will use it as a toilet, then eat it".

JOHN O'MEARA with 39 points was the only short priced contender to come within COOEE of the DC Trophy – he shared equal third place with Life Member Garry Bird, Ian Massey and Noel Quinlan.

FINES, some were:

Mike Dodd	having to play his sand iron shot back up the hill to escape from the bunker protecting the 17 th green
Garry Bird LM	taking time off for a photo shoot at the Bird Bath
President and Vice President	playing with the assistance of motorised droids
Grahame Bryce and Manfred	CREDIT FINE – for calling in to see the Lizards
Geoff Wade (non-playing visitor)	CREDIT FINE – completing his apprenticeship as Assistant Shed Task Master
