APRIL 2006

WELCOME TO GORDON "POSTIE" DONALD LM MEMORIAL DAY

Following the sad demise of our esteemed treasurer and mentor, POSTIE, the club received a call from Mark Macmillan, Lizards 40th President, offering to provide a perpetual POSTIE MEMORIAL TROPHY "to be awarded to the clubman of the year and presented at the AGM each year. The recipient to be chosen by the committee."

Sounds like a desirable perpetual trophy at the other end of the spectrum to the Paddle.

Mark is our sponsor today and provided the normal prizes for Lizards and Visitors. There is a chance he might visit us during the day.

DAVE RAYNER MEMORIAL DAY, with 17 Lizards and an absence of visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS					Chris Mooney - 43 points on count-back off 12 handicap
2nd LIZARDS					David Gilchrist - 43 points off 19 handicap
BEST SCRATCH					Michael Harrison - 31 points
BEST FRONT NINE					Hartmut Schwarz - 21 points off 29 handicap
BEST BACK NINE					Michael Morgan - 20 points off 18 handicap
NEAREST the PINS	19+	1 st	Garry Bird LM	9 th	Wall Hill
	18-	1 st	Michael Harrison	9 th	Chris Mooney
LONGEST DRIVES	19+	2 nd	David Gilchrist
	18-	2 nd	Neil Winterton
BRADMAN	Lizards				Brian Ellis - 27 points off 14 handicap
	Visitors

PRESIDENT Colin Lacey opened the meeting without the LIZARD – went back to his car to secure it, then lost it before he could give it a drink.

CHRIS MOONEY, usually in the select bunch making the last stampede to the tape, has swallowed a lot of dust but never made it to the pay window in the last 17 months. Congratulations on your win in a knife edge countback.

DAVID GILCHRIST has not stood on the podium and heard his anthem for 33 months – at least he made it to the platform, even if they were playing someone else's tune. He was only a splitz wick away from stardom.

INTERESTING to see Hart Schwarz and Noel Quinlan finished 3rd and 4th with 40 and 39 points. Congratulations on your efforts – it's hard to push through that thin layer of ice at the top.

MICHAEL HARRISON had a windfall – due to the absence of visitors was awarded a prize for best scratch. He also won the raffle, nearest the pin but Neil Winterton beat him to the fairway on the long drive 2nd.

BILL SHEEHAN LM catered for the day – but due to the moon being in the St Patrick's Day quarter, and his daughter Kathryn being born on the fateful day, was unable to attend as he was overseeing a two day clan bash of rels in his backyard.

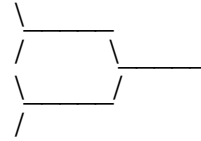

WAL HILL and IVAN TILTINS did an excellent job of cooking the steaks and presenting the condiments and salads.

THE LINDENBERG – 2006 is underweigh, 1st round results were:

Hart Schwarz	def	Glenn Castle	2 up
Chris Mooney	def	Andrew Warner LM	5 & 3
Ivan Tiltins	def	Brian Ellis	3 & 2
Noel Quinlan	def	Neil Winterton	3 & 2
Michael Morgan	def	Ian Massey	1 up
Jim Small	def	Garry Bird LM	on the 19 th
Wal Hill	def	John O'Meara	walkover
Colin Lacey	def	Michael Harrison	2 up

Draw for the 2nd round of the Lindenberg - 2006

Hartmut Schwarz	vs	Chris Mooney
Ivan Tiltins	vs	Noel Quinlan
Michael Morgan	vs	Jim Small
Wal Hill	vs	Colin Lacey

The MORGAN-SMALL encounter with 2 of the biggest names in Lindenberg history will be a good match to watch. Titleholder Jim was runner up in '03 and won in '04 and Michael won in '05. Good luck to all contenders.
