CUSTARD BALL WINNING TEAM

Wal Hill, Glenn Castle, Michael Harrison and Hartmut Schwarz with 34 points on count-back

Michael Morgan & Glenn Castle fought out the Lizards first prize on the day with both shooting 36 points with the same score of 19 and 17 on each nine. Michael was eventually declared the winner by our President because Michael was giving him a lift home.

Brian Harris had very little trouble winning first prize in the visitor's competition. He had the exactly the same amount of trouble winning the visitor's Bradman trophy. Throw in a "nearest the pin" and Brian made quite a day of it.

Michael Harrison made quite a day of it too. He teamed up with Wal, Stretch & Hart to win the “custard ball” event and also had his name inscribed on the “Bird Bath” honour roll. The jury is still out on whether he under clubbed or just hit it badly.

President Chris wimped out of playing on the day because his knee was poorly. He made himself useful however by presiding over the sausages & rissoles thereby giving Bill Sheehan a very easy day.

Vice-President, Ivan Tiltsin showed he still has a great deal of ‘Lizards folk lore” to catch up on when he asked “what is a custard ball event?”

Our esteemed Life Member Garry Bird, not satisfied with the various events provided for the Lizard’s enjoyment on the day, decided to start a golf club throwing competition on the twelfth hole. Noel Quinlan thought it was a good idea & joined in on the seventeenth.

As you must all know by now, our Port Macquarie exodus begins on Friday 3rd November 2006. Please be reminded that you are responsible for booking your own accommodation.
