APRIL 2007

Welcome to The Postie Memorial Day. (2nd round of the 2007 Lindenberg)

Today we honour the memory of Gordon Donald (LM) who served the Lizards for more years than most of us can remember. Our treasurer up to the time of his passing, he epitomized the spirit that has kept the Lizards running strongly for nearly 60years.
God bless old mate.

The day's winner, Hartmut Schwarz did not make the Lindenberg field due to being cleaned up in an accident shortly before the qualifying round. His 44 points was 5 clear of the field and the rest of us had to listen to more recitals of "I am the greatest" than could be heard at a combined Cassius Clay & Tony Mundine press conference.

Michael Harrison made a return to the pay out window scoring 39 points to beat David Gilchrist & the Dobber on a count back. The way he disposed of the excess froth on his downer was applauded by all at the meeting with the exception of "I am the greatest" who was sitting right in front of him.

Geoff Wade had little trouble cleaning up the visitor's events winning first prize & the Bradman. He seemed a little bit miffed when told there was no prize for second place.

Neil Winterton & Ian Massey were our caterers on the day & served up a variety of gourmet sausages for our main meal. They have been slotted in for the same month next year with strict instructions to provide more of the same.

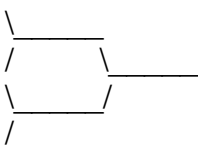

Walter Hill is congratulated for implementing the catering roster that has been serving the lizards so well. The variety of meals we have enjoyed has been great & the work load has been shared by most. Well done Wal. (by the way, you are caterer this month).

Complementing our caterers would not be complete without mentioning the expertise of our BBQ chef extraordinaire. Bill has his job down to a fine art & his cooking is appreciated by all, especially those who like their meat well done.
