OCTOBER 2007

Welcome to Castle Hill Plate Day Mk IX

Stretch and Wal weigh in again for another round of donorship this month. Their major innovation is the annual putting competition, which has had more rule changes than a game of schoolyard marbles. Our handicapper reckons he's got it sorted out and with any luck he will enlighten us before we hit off. There are lots of prizes on offer today guys, so best of luck.

WARNER DAY, with 19 Lizards and 5 visitors, produced the following results:

CUSTARD BALL WINNING TEAM

Jim Small, Garry Bird LM, Andrew Warner LM and David Gilchrist with 40 points

Wal had his first visit to the pay window to collect first prize since November 2001, although he has picked up a number of second places and at least 3 Bradman's in that time. His effort did not go unnoticed by the handicapper who has lopped off three shots. This will probably please Wal who has always strived to lower his handicap. Well done.

The Custard Ball event was won by the donor and his team with a healthy 40 points. Garry and Dave obviously contributed well, as Jim Small (30) and Andy (24) had less than stellar rounds.

A couple of very good scores from visitors David Worley and Greg Robertson with 46 and 45 points respectively. The Lizards always enjoy extending their hospitality gentlemen – just don't expect the same handicaps next time you join us!

Last chance to decide if you are attending this year's trip to Port Macquarie. You need to arrange your own accommodation, but the tee times have been booked for Kew and Emerald Downs. Final info at today's meeting!

Fines of the Day

Matt Gerathy	Being the only player in his group to score less than 45 points
Hart Schwarz	Waited until the first group had finished eating before producing the salad he had brought
