Welcome to Warner Day (and to North Turramurra GC)

Avalon Golf Course – permanent home to The Lizards since the early 1960s – has indicated that we are no longer welcome to use their facilities. Brian Ellis our president paid a visit to the golf course last week and was greeted with this view of 'The Shed'

In typical Lizards fashion the troops banded together to work out a solution. After much to-ing, fro-ing, investigating and negotiating we have decided to relocate to North Turramurra Golf Course. This is an 18 hole course with most of the facilities required to run a successful Lizards Day, including a friendly picnic area. The pro staff at the course are well known to some of us and have indicated that they would gladly welcome us. Address details and booked tee times for the next 15 months can be found later in this issue and on the website.

To kick things off Andy Warner will be hosting Warner Day, including the now traditional Custard Ball event. This is the only 4-ball team event on our calendar and it has been known to test the abilities and teamwork of all involved. Good luck to all today, and here's to happy days from now on.

Stretch continued his purple patch with another 1st place in August. Clearly showing ability beyond what his 29 handicap would suggest, he pulled on the handbrake and finished 4 shots ahead of the field. I wonder how he'll go on the longer fairways at North Turramurra?

Mick Porter still couldn't crack it for his maiden win at Lizards. His 35 points was marred by a disappointing 15 point back nine. Better luck next time Mick.

Hart showed that he still has what it takes to finish at the back of the field. On a low scoring day, there were a few members that were somewhat uneasy when submitting their cards, fearing they might have to wear the dreaded silly hat. Hart came to everyone's rescue however, and brought visitor Rick Welch along for the ride.

Rick had that rare honour that saw him take out both the visitor's trophy and the Bradman.

Fines of the Day

- Wal Hill His horse "Cousin Wal" won at Rosehill yesterday paying over $20. Wal did not tip his horse to anyone in the Lizards.
- Chris Mooney Stated that the Lizards website is full of crap
- Col Lacey Spent 3 weeks holidaying in England and came back talking like a Pommie. On the way back he had a stopover in Dubai and started growing a beard like a terrorist.
- Wal Hill Was heard to say "I have just had my prostate checked. A doctor didn't check it; I got a mate to do it".
- Hart On the 13th tee Hart decided to hit a leg glance. As his playing partners ducked for cover he teed up again and then hit a square cut. Who said Germans can't play cricket?
