AUGUST 2010

Welcome to Le Mon/Della Day

August is one of the two months each year (the other being March) when we are blessed with the company of Tony Della for a round of golf. Since departing Dee Why for the cooler climes of the South Coast he has always provided a few surprises for us on his donor day. Astute golfers will know that there is a better than average chance of bagging a trophy or two today. It is also Tony's first visit to Lizards since our move from Avalon, so it could be interesting to see how he handles the new layout.

EPDS/MEREDITH DAY, with 19 Lizards and 3 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS	Glenn Castle - 38 points on count-back off 23 handicap
2nd LIZARDS	Brian Ellis - 38 points off 26 handicap
1st VISITORS	Bruce Staples - 30 points off 32 handicap
BEST SCRATCH	Ivan Tiltins - 27 points
BEST FRONT NINE	David Gilchrist - 17 points off 17 handicap
BEST BACK NINE	Chris Mooney - 21 points on count-back off 16 handicap
NEAREST the PINS	19+ 8 th N.G.E. (lost marker) 11 th Glenn Castle
	18- 8 th Chris Mooney 11 th Michael Harrison
LONGEST DRIVES	19+ 15 th Jack Britton
	18- 15 th Michael Porter
BRADMAN	Lizards Garry Bird - 26 points off 22 handicap
Visitors	Peter Simmons - 19 points off 30 handicap

Brian Ellis thought he had his measure, but failed to see a blinding back nine 23 pointer from Stretch, and consequently had to be content with second place. Glenn obviously needs to let his front nine ration of Tooheys kick in before unleashing the monster within.

There must be something in the winter frost up here because July marked the second month running that the Lizard's scores topped out at 38!

Bruce Staples assumed his customary spot on the visitor's podium but never really extended himself. And why would he? When 30 points sees you clear of the second runner by 7 points there's no upset the handicapper any more than you have to. Did I hear someone ask when he was going to join?

Jack Britton may have been nudging the visitor's Bradman hat, but it didn't stop him slamming a long drive on the 15th. Given some of the talent on offer it must have been some hit.

Chris Mooney, your erstwhile editor, is having some difficulty cracking it for a win at North Turramurra. This month he bagged a NTP & had the best back nine but still finished a point behind Stretch & Brian. Maybe the new driver will help.

Fines of the Day

Jim Small	For having the nerve to stand for the victualler's position this year after his form last year
Wal Hill	Confessed to being a Julia Gillard fan. He said "She can leave her shoes under my bed anytime"
Col Lacey	Hit his ball into the caged area on the 3 rd hole & expected Ivan to climb the fence and get it
Wal Hill	After serving up the stone cold soup Stretch brought us for breakfast, decided that he was not too happy with the taste. He proceeded to embellish it with a kilo of BBQ ash and smoke
Hart	Was noticed wearing his shirt buttoned right up to the top. When asked why he replied "Because I am wearing a dirty singlet"
