MARCH 2011

Welcome to Rayner Memorial Day

It is now twelve years since the Grizz passed away in January, 1999. Today's event, sponsored by Jim Small, is held in his memory. Dave was one of the most consistent golfers in the club, was a regular at the pay window, and claimed the Club Championship in 1992 and 1995.

This is the thirteenth time we will be contesting the trophy named in his honour. Since 1999 it has been won by ten different golfers with Hart Schwarz & Michael Harrison each winning it twice. Thanks for the memories Grizz, we'll be thinking of you when we raise our glasses today.

FOUNDATION/LIFE MEMBER'S DAY, with 19 Lizards and 1 visitor, produced the following results:

Due to an error on the day Peter Simmonds was incorrectly awarded 1st place when it was in fact Jim Small that should have received the gong. Sorry about that Jim, and you were right – there was no way you could win off your 15 handicap. 16 however is another story, right? Now how about continuing your good run at the Club Championship off 15!

Joseph O'Meara made a welcome return to our ranks and cleaned up the visitor's 1st prize and Bradman with a neat 38 points. The only sad thing about this feat was that his father didn't stick around long enough to see him collect the silverware.

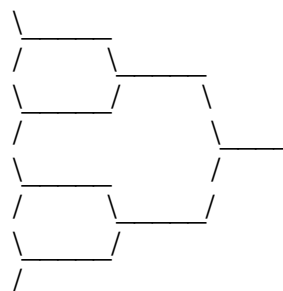

This year's trip to Jamberoo was another raging success with 14 die-hards making the trek down south. The weather was very kind to us with downpours at night leading into cool mornings and warm dry afternoons. The annual balcony dinner was a colourful affair with about half of the mob wearing the requisite Hawaiian shirt.

The only injury sustained occurred on the golf course rather than being the result of post match celebrations as it usually is. Ian Massey thought that the quickest way down the 16th fairway at Kangaroo Valley would be to roll down. So he twisted his ankle, fell down and rolled to a stop somewhere near Jim Small's buggy. On seeing this sight Michael Harrison assumed he was doing some mechanical work for Jim! Ian made a slow recovery over the course of the weekend, no doubt helped by his home made bandage of socks and sandals.

Draw for the 1st round of the Lindenberg - 2011

1) Jim Small	vs	(16) Brian Ellis
8) Michael Morgan	vs	(9) Garry Bird LM
5) Wal Hill	vs	(12) Glenn Castle
4) Ivan Tiltins	vs	(13) Gary Castle
3) Dennis Castle	vs	(14) Michael Harrison
6) Bob Paine	vs	(11) John O'Meara
7) Chris Mooney	vs	(10) Colin Lacey
2) Peter Simmonds	vs	(15) Hartmut Schwarz

The 2011 Lindenberg kicks off today and there appears to be a number of interesting match-ups. Last month's winner against last month's Bradman for a start! Good luck to all participants and may the best man win.

Notice about cessation of printed FOL!

For the past umpteen years your editor has been sending out printed copies of the FOL to our country members. Did you know that a PDF of the FOL is available every month on the Lizards official website? I am planning to cease sending out the paper copies in June 2011 unless there is a compelling reason to keep them going. The printed version will still be available on match day of course.

The official Lizards website can be found at: <http://www.lizardsgolfclub.com>

Fines of the Day

Hartmut Schwarz	Used an electrical cord from his iron to secure his golf bag to his buggy
Chris Mooney Michael Morgan	Did refer to "Crown drinkers" as wanking yuppies
Wal Hill	After finding there was no cold beer at half time did suggest that Stretch's parents were not married
Ivan Tiltins	For wasting Lizards funds. He cooked one too many eggs for breakfast this morning
Neil Winterton Ian Massey Brian Ellis Hartmut Schwarz	Slow play on the 1 st tee
