MARCH 2012

Welcome to Rayner Memorial Day

(First Round of the Lindenberg)

January 2012 marks the thirteenth anniversary of 'The Grizz's' passing. Today's event, sponsored by Jim Small, is held in his memory. Dave was one of the club's most consistent golfers, and claimed the Club Championship in 1992 and 1995. Dave was generally first in line when it came to "downers" & no doubt, he will be keeping a heavenly eye on the day's activities particularly when Jim calls for a toast in his honour.

FOUNDATION/LIFE MEMBER'S DAY, with 22 Lizards & 1 visitor, produced the following results:

Neil Winterton popped up for his first win in 2½ years with an out of character 44 points. After turning on 26 points (1 under par off the stick), he decided discretion was the better part of valor and toned it down somewhat for the back nine. The subsequent two shot trimming of his handicap is not going to affect his Lindenberg chances as he's decided not to compete this year!

Speaking of uncharacteristic rounds, Wal Hill's 43 points was his highest total in a long time, and easily his best score at North Turrumurra. There must have been something in his breakfast. He followed this great round up with a less than convincing 9 points at Horizons GC during the alternate Jamberoo trip enjoyed by a small group of recalcitrants. See below for a shot of Wal displaying sauce remnants from his celebratory Hungry Jacks burger.

Grant Schwarz was a welcome visitor, and it wasn't even Father & Son Day! He had his first podium finish since 2006, scoring a respectable (but not necessarily showy) 38 points. Perhaps he's been having lessons – Hart, are you listening?

The annual Howard Lindenberg competition kicks off today with what should be a full field of 16 participants. There is a strong possibility that we will have course changes today due to ongoing upgrades of the layout. Please be aware of any instructions from the Captain/Handicapper. Should it come to it, reserves (in order) for today are 1) P. Kiely, 2) C. Lacey, 3) M. Morgan.

He also sent through the following anecdote and photos:

Picture this, 2nd night into the trip its 3 am, Stretch and Gary are fast asleep in the motel room when Stretch's mobile rings, Ring, ring - ring, ring... Stretch answers the phone and a voice shouts out "WHERE THE F ARE YOU?" Knowing its Jenny, Stretch looks over at Gary and shouts "GARY WHERE THE F AM I?" Gary replies "IN THE FING MOTEL ROOM"

The moral to the story "If you're going away on a trip tell your wife"
