Welcome to President's Day

(Semi Finals of the Lindenberg)

Bucking the recent trend of Presidential lynchings, Gary Castle knowingly put up his hand up to be President at the last AGM. Mumblings of "about time" were heard from several members, but he has taken to the task with gusto regardless. In the spirit of maintaining the "office of innovation", Gary has provided us with a somewhat workable solution for our half time hot dogs and instilled some much needed discipline into the monthly meetings. Well done Pres, may all your golfing days be dry ones.

POSTIE MEMORIAL DAY, with 16 Lizards & 2 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS

Peter Kiely - 43 points off a handicap of 20

2nd LIZARDS

Neil Winterton - 39 points off a handicap of 12

Proving that last month's 2nd on a count-back result was no fluke, Peter Kiely went one better this month to claim the major prize for himself. He finished 4 clear of the field without even raising a sweat – well done PK!

Neil Winterton is showing no signs of slowing down, playing to a handicap of 9 on the day. I wonder when the handicapper will wake up to his hijinks and make him our next single digit marker?

Dave Dunworth made a rare visit to our humble links and helped himself to some prizes along the way. It's great to see some of the old timers dropping in from time to time.

Notice about the standard of member's Scorecards

Captain/Handicapper Manfred made an observation that last month's results were "a best effort given the large number of incorrect scorecards." All members are requested to take due care when recording their scores. (Like that will ever happen)

Welcome to new member David Copeland

After attending Lizards as a visitor for what seems like an eternity, David decided to formally apply for membership of our great club. Despite tendering the first typed membership application in our history and his insinuation that Lizards are (or at the very least resemble) Piss Potts, he was welcomed into our ranks. May your association with the club be a long and fruitful one David!

Fines of the Day

Hart

Silly question Number 1: "Andy, would you write out a TAB ticket for me in the next race?" When asked what horse he wanted to back, he replied "I'm not sure!"

Silly question Number 2: "Andy, I have got the feature pay on the poker machine I am playing. Can you tell me how to start it?" When it was suggested that he press the flashing button with "Start Feature" printed on it he said "I didn't think of that"

Silly question Number 3: "Andy, did you drive down to golf today?" – answer no – Hart replied "Good, can you give me a lift home then?"

President	When giving the dobber instructions on how to prepare the hot dogs he finished by saying "Don't worry about having them hot for the first group. I don't want mine burst so cook them slowly"
Geoff Wade	Did an impersonation of a constipated donkey after getting a piece of bacon wedged in his throat at breakfast today
Michael Morgan	Our treasurer is fined for having scant regard for our finances. A 5 cent piece was found directly below where he was collecting today's fees
Gary Castle	Leading 3 up after 8 holes did confide in the dobber that his opponent could not beat time with a stick
Garry Bird	Did mark his own card today and still only got 27 points
