FLAT OUT LIKE

JULY 2012

Welcome to Epps/Meredith Day

(Sponsored by Col Lacey & Ivan Tiltins)

Bill Epps and Neville 'Nifty' Meredith defined the term 'club stalwart' through their years of service and dedication to the Lizards, and today marks the fifth year we have teed off without either of them being present. Both are sadly missed of course. Nifty had a great sense of humour and was larger than life. Bill brought with him a sense of calmness and respect for tradition that is serving us well to this day. Thanks for the memories guys.

Col and Ivan are our donors today. Both are active club members, and we're looking forward to see what goodies they have lined up for trophies. The fairways and trophy slates have been cleared in preparation for another Lizards year. Let the fun begin!

Winners of Father & Son

Matt Small and Jake Small with 82 points

Peter Kiely must have decided early that 37 points would be enough to win the event, expecting that the gaggle of Castles & Smalls cluttering up the field would prove a distraction to the rest of the members. He was right, but only just as John O'Meara fell one putt short on the back nine and lost it on a countback.

The Smalls have made it three Father & Son titles in a row. This time it was Jake edging out Matt for the visitor's prize, with the two of them combining to take out the Father & Son prize. Interesting Fact: the average handicap of Smalls on the day was 39.7, up by three on last year's 36.5!

The final of the 2011 Howard Lindenberg Trophy was contested by Michael Porter and Harmut Schwarz. This is how they made it there:

Michael Porter	d	Chris Mooney (1 up)
	d	Jim Small (walkover)
Harmut Schwarz	d	Peter Simmonds (3&2)
	d	Wal Hill (3&1)

It was an unusually tight match this year, taking 19 holes to reach a result. Hart took an early lead but inconsistency from both players cost them dearly. In the end either nerves or stamina got the better of Hart and he wilted in the warm July sunshine. Well done to both finalists, and congratulations Mick.

The 2011/12 AGM was held on Tuesday 3rd July at the Balgowlah RSL. The following committee members were elected for the 2010/11 season:
