AUGUST 2012

It's a Wal in One!!

Wal Hill proudly removes his ball from the cup on the 5th hole last month picking up the first Lizards ace at North Turramurra and the $1600 Hole-In-One jackpot in the process!

Welcome to Captain/Handicapper's Day

In normal circumstances today's event would be sponsored by Tony Della, however he is still recovering from a setback and is unable to attend. Neil Winterton has stepped up to the plate and brought his day forward at short notice – well done Neil! He and Manfred have been extra generous with the handicaps this month as well so let's be kind to them for once!

EPDS/MEREDITH DAY, with 21 Lizards and no visitors, produced the following results:

Michael Harrison made the most of the conditions to bag his first win of the new year and his first in over 12 months. Unfortunately for Michael his luck ran out just 2 weeks later when he suffered a heart attack at Warringah Golf Course.

He was in a critical condition for some time but has been recovering well at Royal North Shore hospital and by now should have had his pacemaker fitted. If all goes well he is intending to be with us today. Best of luck Michael.

Hoping to improve on his fourth placing in last year's Club Championship, Brian Ellis slipped into second place with a neat 36 points. Wise play – pick up 13 CC points without alerting the handicapper!

Dennis Castle was running hot and cold, picking up a longest drive as well as the Bradman. There is method to his madness as he picked up a ball, a beer and a couple of shots on his handicap.

Fines of the Day

Dennis Castle	Had an air swing with a putter. He then said "It wasn't an air swing because I meant to hit it"
Michael Morgan David Copeland	Parked their golf cart across the gate to the course today after their round. No-one could get in to play for 15 minutes
Hart	Announced after the 8 th hole "This is the first time I have finished the front nine without a wipe"
Hart	On the 11 th hole, he duffed his tee shot, followed it with an air swing, duffed his 3 rd and 4 th shots, chipped on for his 5 th shot and then 3 putted. He then announced "I was robbed"
Garry Castle	Played like a peanut today. He said it was the pressure of being the Immediate Past President
