FLAT OUT LIKE

SEPTEMBER 2012

Welcome to Warner Day Mk XXIV

The first Lizards round each Spring sees us being welcomed by Life Member Andrew Warner and teeing up his custard balls. Andrew is a long time member of the club with 32 seasons (and a lot more besides) under his belt. His donor days are always fondly remembered for the wealth of prizes on offer, the confused look on the faces of members new to the Custard Ball event, and the extra effort he seems to put into constructing the fines. Thanks for your ongoing efforts Andrew and we look forward to MkXXV in 2013!

CAPTAIN HANDICAPPER'S DAY, with 20 Lizards and no visitors, produced the following results:

Glenn "Stretch" Castle was a picture of consistency while amassing his 40 point win. While it was the first time in a couple of years he saluted the judges, it nearly didn't happen at all as he got lost on the way to the course after finding himself in a dead end street! We're not sure whether he was awarded the longest drive for this or his shot on the 1st tee.

Eagle eyed readers may notice that the scores in this FOL vary from those read out at last months meeting. Following comments from several members your editor queried the assistant handicapper and received the following reply: "You were right to query - I had not run the monthly updates prior to printing the score cards. The results attached have been based on the correct handicaps." So there you go.

Jim Small went about his business with little fuss and was as surprised as anyone when he tallied up his score card. Playing in the same group as Michael Morgan he managed one extra point on the back nine to claim the prize on a count-back. Well done Jim.

Lizards Whispers...

A new column in the FOL covering innuendo and hearsay regarding the antics that some of members get up to. Submissions for this column can be emailed to editor@lizardsgolfclub.com

To kick things off, which Lizard was contributing so poorly to the betting pool he was in with a couple of other Lizards that he resorted to picking 5 horses in a boxed trifecta? Despite having over half the field covered on the ticket he still only managed to pick one of the place-getters.

Fines of the Day

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| Jim Small | For getting upset when he was told that the new St George team song is "Friday On My Mind". It was also performed by the Easybeats |
| Michael Morgan | On the 16 th hole he decided to liven the course up by landing his tee shot on the pro shop roof |
| Ivan Tiltins | For trying to convince the Lizards that he is "Village Idiot" material by wearing his silly hat this morning |

Gary Castle	Did tip the hot dog water where a group of Lizards were standing having a conversation
Ian Massey	Was heard to say "At times I can't remember my own name"
