BRADMAN Lizards

Your intrepid Assistant Handicapper and Editor were missing last month as they chose to spread the word of the Lizards to the northern hemisphere.

They can be seen here admiring Margerie Glacier in Glacier Bay Alaska. After this photo was taken they went on to win the ship's putting competition!

Seems like it was the day to score 39 points with three Lizards vying for top honours. Two of them had a blistering 22 points on the back nine, but it was Brian Ellis who took the photo before correct weight was called. Well done Brian.

Not far behind the breakaway group and at the head of the peloton were Ivan Tiltins and Geoff Wade on 38 points. There must have been something in the water as the scoring average for the day was 35 points.

In an unusual turn of events, Bradman David Copeland featured in the Custard Ball winning team, along with Brian and Geoff. Who would have thought?

Final details today on the upcoming Central Coast trip. If you haven't made your mind up whether to go or not, now's the time.

Lizards Whispers...

Which 2 Lizards have issued the following 2 challenges to Ivan?

1. Lizard 'A' has challenged Ivan Tiltins that between now and 1st of October 2013 he (Lizard 'A') will beat Ivan Tiltins off the stick at the AGU course of the challenger's choosing for the sum of AU$500.00.

2. Lizard 'B' has challenged Ivan Tiltins to a 100 metre sprint, winner will take all, same time period as above.

Dennis Castle	Got stuck in the mud today trying to get his ball out of the dam on the 9 th hole. It took the rest of his playing group to lift him out of the swamp. He then got stuck in the brambles on the 13 th scrub and his playing partners had to rescue him again
