NOVEMBER 2012

Welcome to Morgan Mooney Day Mk XIV

Early in 1999 Michael Morgan & Chris Mooney were approached by secretary Garry Bird who stated "you guys have been members for a while now and we think it's about time you had your own donor's day – what do you think?" They accepted without too much fuss and thus was Morgan-Mooney Day born. Today we celebrate 14 years since that meeting. The two have introduced a number of innovations such as the team multiplier event and special prizes like monogrammed polo shirts, Crown Lager bottles and last year's Lizards golf balls. Thanks for your support gents, and may you continue to host the day for many years to come!

November brings us face to face with one of the annual novelty events – the Morgan Mooney Multiplier. Those thinking of partnering with a high marker in an attempt to maximise their score should be sure to weigh up the risk of the inevitable wipes.

CASTLE HILL PLATE DAY, with 20 Lizards and 1 visitor, produced the following results:

PUTTING COMPETITION	Neil Winterton - 25 putts

Talk about a long time between drinks! October 2012 marked 61 consecutive months since Wal Hill last won Lizards. He's come close with a couple of second placings, and of course has been no stranger to the silly hat, but first place has eluded him. On a day when the average score was 40.1, Wal stood above them all to be counted. Predicted date for his next win? December 2017!

John O'Meara took full advantage of the forward tees, leaving himself short shots into the greens to maximise his scoring. It paid off too – he racked up 25 back nine points on his way to a total of 46.

Lizards rookie Ken Albert was never troubled for the major prize as he was the only visitor. After claiming that his lack of regular golf had caused his handicap to blow out he suggested that a fair starting point would be 18. After the 43 points he scored I'm sure the handicapper will have other thoughts!

Neil Winterton must have had a few practice rounds of minigolf as his short stick was on fire. He easily took out the putting competition with his 25 putts. Unfortunately for him this success did not translate to his overall score of 40, which was below par for the day.

Lizards Whispers...

So who is Wal's mystery partner???

Fines of the Day

Hart	Decided to liven up proceedings upon arrival at Lizards today. He had a head on crash with Peter Simmonds' car
Jim Small	When he discovered that his handicap was increased to 18 did state: "The Crapper is a fool! There is no way I should be on anything above 16 handicap"
Mick Porter	Stood on the 10 th tee and stated: "I had better wait until the green is clear. I can get there easily the way I am playing today"
Wal Hill	For selling the bacon he cooked this morning to Dunlop Rubber. They are going to make things out of it
Michael Morgan	On the 11 th hole did decide to mix his two favourite sports – golf and bush walking
