JANUARY 2013

Happy New Year and Welcome To Gary's Summer SandCastle Day

It's not often we get a new donor stepping up to the plate but today is one of those days. Gary Castle has been a member of the club for as long as anyone can remember, and has filled several committee positions including President. Being the less raucous of the Castle Brothers he is sometimes easy to miss among the stream of consciousness that is Stretch, but now is the time for his moment in the sun. Welcome aboard Gary!

CHRISTMAS CARROLL DAY, with 24 Lizards and 2 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS

Geoff Wade - 47 points off a handicap of 38

2nd LIZARDS

Bob Paine - 42 points off a handicap of 8

1st VISITORS

Tony Rocks - 45 points off a handicap of 30

2nd VISITORS

Greg Tucker - 37 points off a handicap of 8

BRADMAN

Lizards
Visitors

Dennis Castle - 27 points off a handicap of 21

Greg Tucker - 37 points off a handicap of 8

You have to go back over four years to see Geoff Wade have his last win but it was worth the wait. 47 points was good enough to smash the rest of the field into submission and collect the coveted Christmas Carroll Trophy.

Bob Paine thought that going around the course 2 over par off the stick would be good enough but he was wrong. In any case it was a good effort and only once before has it been bettered by a Lizard – Ivan Tiltins when he scored 44 off 9 in May 2010.

Another golfer taking advantage of a generous handicap was new visitor Tony Rocks who came in with 45 points. Enjoy that 30 handicap while you can Tony!

From hero to zero in 30 days – that's how Dennis Castle must have felt following his spectacular form reversal. After racking up 50 points at our November meet he limped home with just 27 points in December, collecting the Bradman along the way.

Lizards Whispers...

Ivan Tiltins was recently spotted wearing his Lizards shirt (on a non-Lizards day) at Murawai Beach in New Zealand.

Let's not even mention the ducks on the pond!

Fines of the Day

Hart

After his recent abysmal driving efforts, he was refused entry into the Lizards parking area this morning

Jim Small

Was heard to say "The Anchor has got his name on the NTP marker. Let's move it 5 metres further away

Mick Porter

After a succession of good holes today was heard to say "another sub-par round coming up!"

Geoff Warren	Wore a hat today that looked as though it would be more at home in a Cambodian paddy field
Hart	After his round today boasted "I played 18 holes today without a wipe & without an air swing." This immediately brought a retort of "Bullshit" from his 3 playing partners

JAMBEROO UPDATE

Peter Kiely has confirmed accommodation with the pub for 22-24 March 2013 as well as booking us in for dinner on the balcony on Saturday night. Ivan is in the process of confirming Kangaroo Valley for the 22nd. Further details at today's meeting.
