OCTOBER 2013

Welcome to Castle Hill Plate Day

They've taken some beatings over the years, but none more so than now. One half today's donors has been laid up in hospital for a few weeks after losing an argument with a telegraph pole. We're talking about Stretch of course, and fortunately his recent progress has been very encouraging. He's taken to arranging 'a day on the piss' at the Terry Hills Tavern to pass the time while he's off work. I'm sure we can rely on Wal Hill to pick up the slack on this occasion and who knows – Glenn may have procured a Zimmer frame to get him here today...

WARNER DAY, with 21 Lizards and 3 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS

Glen Batkin - 41 points off a handicap of 30

CUSTARD BALL WINNING TEAM

Wal Hill, Andrew Warner, Jim Small and Bob Paine with 37 points

Glen Batkin scores his first up win as a Lizards with a healthy 41 points. It won't take long for the handicapper to catch up with him, starting from this month where he's been docked 3 shots. Keep up the good work Glen.

Bob Paine remained true to his recent form with a runner-up winning 38 points. He seems to be a lot more relaxed since returning from his holiday.

David Leonard had his second win in three months, this time with a whopping 44 points. At this rate he'll be hitting 50 points by Christmas!

On The Mend

As mentioned earlier, our great mate Stretch has been recovering well since his unfortunate motoring incident last month. Apparently he's looking a lot better than his brother's car is. The jury is still out on its fate, but rumour is it was last seen as a museum piece at a Swedish Massage Parlour.

Central Coast Trip

Our bookings for the November trip are as follows.

- Friday 1st Toukley tee off 11.00am
- Return to Ashwood Motel (across the road from the Galaxy and RSL - 73 Central Coast Highway West Gosford NSW 2250)
- Saturday 2nd Gosford GC tee off after 12.00pm
- Sunday 3rd Tuggerah Lakes GC tee off 1.28

Those wishing to stay over on Sun night advise me as early as possible. This motel is owned by the RSL and same discounts apply as last year.

Fines of the Day

Peter Symonds	After losing his putter cover on the 8 th hole went up to all the Lizards who were playing ahead of him to see if anyone had found it
Chris Mooney	For displaying his two-tone hairy legs at Lizards today
Ivan Tiltins	Played a poker machine with Wal Hill last Friday. They won a large jackpot. Ivan pressed the gamble button by mistake
Col Lacey	Parked his ride on buggy at the entrance to our car park denying Lizards the chance to park their cars
Wal Hill	Tried to disguise an air swing today claiming that he never meant to hit the ball
