MARCH 2014

Welcome to Rayner Memorial Day

(Sponsored by Jim Small)
(1st round of The Lindenberg)

January 2014 marks the fifteenth anniversary of 'The Grizz's' passing. Today's event, sponsored by Jim Small, is held in his memory. Dave was one of the club's most consistent golfers, and claimed the Club Championship in 1992 and 1995. Dave was generally first in line when it came to "downers" & no doubt, he will be keeping a heavenly eye on the day's activities particularly when Jim calls for a toast in his honour.

FOUNDATION/LIFE MEMBER'S DAY, with 24 Lizards and 3 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS

Chris Mooney - 40 points off a handicap of 17

2nd LIZARDS

February seems to be the month for winner Chris Mooney - after taking out the Feb '13 event he backed up again this year. Although not a noted mud runner, he excelled in the wet conditions to record a close victory over birdy-laden Col Lacey.

Speaking of the weather, the day's attendees proved the old adage that it never rains on Lizards day. A healthy turn-up of 26 golfers hit off in overcast conditions which turned ever more ominous as the morning rolled on. By 9am we were getting the first sprinkles and by 10am the heavens opened. This did not dampen the enthusiasm of those present however who went on to witness a fine meeting which included a soggy reading of the fines followed by a late lunch. The main casualty on the day was our tent which didn't handle the gallons of water it was holding very well.

New visitor Mason Hiini made short work of his fellow competitors, racking up a handy 38 points, just ahead of Kyle Wilson and Rob O'Brien on 37. I think the 22 points he scored on the back nine did the trick! Perhaps Kyle had his mind on other things, such as reading out his membership application speech. Unfazed by the humidity he was duly accepted into our ranks – welcome to the club Kyle!

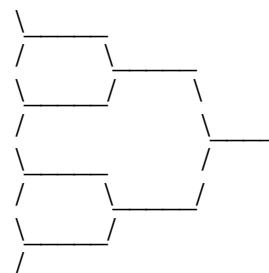

Bob Paine showed a bit of a return to form with his 31 point scratch score. He did however have trouble handling the pace of some of his playing group, even going so far as to award one of them a turtle themed wood cover!

Rumour has it that Wal Hill has been enquiring who he should contact regarding being issued a replacement Lizards 'zac'. The story goes that last week when he finished mowing a friend's lawn he wasn't able to find his car keys which had his zac attached. Searching his surrounds he found the remains of his car keys (they had been run over by the mower) but unfortunately the zac was nowhere to be found!

Fines of the Day

Peter Kiely	Did purchase a new set of golf shoes but decided to wear them at Gordon Golf Club so he wouldn't get fined for wearing new shoes at Lizards
Peter Kiely	For failing to realise that for the purpose of fine revenue, golf shoes are deemed to be new until the owner has been fined at least once or at the discretion of the Chief Dobber
Chris Mooney	For conscripting the aid of a first time visitor in erecting our tent this morning without providing adequate instruction
Col Lacey	For being a major contributor to the case of dysentery suffered by Peter Simmonds on the front nine this morning causing his early departure
Garry Bird	When he filled out his score card was heard to say "Another 37 points. Not bad for a bloke who has just lost 4 shots"

IND STABLEFORD & 2B MULT/QTR FINALS SINGLES K/O
Posn	Player	Score	Nett	H/Cap
2	Kiely, Peter	75	26	19

Seems Peter Kiely has been doing pretty well for himself at Gordon GC based on this recently spotted stableford score. How good must the bloke in first place have gone?

JAMBEROO UPDATE

Only 12 sleeps to go until we hit the links of the Southern Highlands on our annual jaunt to Jamberoo. Kangaroo Valley has been booked for the 28th along with Calderwood for the 29th & 30th. We've heard that Ross from the pub has put on an extra keg of Reschs and tightened up the pokies in anticipation of our visit. Further details at today's meeting.
