JULY 2014

Welcome to Epps/Meredith Day

(Sponsored by Col Lacey & Ivan Tiltins)

Bill Epps and Neville 'Nifty' Meredith defined the term 'club stalwart' through their years of service and dedication to the Lizards, and today marks the seventh year we have teed off without either of them being present. Both are sadly missed of course. Nifty had a great sense of humour and was larger than life. Bill brought with him a sense of calmness and respect for tradition that is serving us well to this day. Thanks for the memories guys, and thanks to our sponsors for the day - Col Lacey & Ivan Tiltins.

We also welcome our incoming President – Peter “PK” Kiely. Peter has been around the club for decades now. He's our genial host at the Jamberoo pub and is a frequent visitor to Thailand, but insists he's sworn off the ladyboys! He has committed to a washout free reign for the 2014/15 season to boot. Welcome PK!

Cameron Lawler has wasted no time since becoming a member of our fine club by notching up his first member's win. It's nice to welcome another A Grader to our ranks – it might stop the other ones whinging so much!

David Leonard has won three times as a visitor in the past 12 months. First up was in July where he had 35 off 30, followed by September where he had 44 off 30 (bit of a burgle there) and finally June where he had 39 off 26. Watch out if he decides to apply for membership because it looks like he's got the handicapper fooled!

Garry Bird LM and Chris Mooney fought the final of the Lindenberg for 2013/14. Chris skipped off to an early lead, playing on Garry's nerves, but he got a bit cocky and by the middle of the back nine it was Garry who held a 2 hole lead. Despite looking like he was home he managed to make a complete mess of the final 2 holes, taking the match to the 19th. Now it was Chris's turn to have a brain snap, missing the green with his first two shots, whereas Garry put his tee shot on the green and calmly putted a 10 metre birdie. As Captain/Handicapper Neil Winterton was heard to say after Garry sank the putt: "Well that sorts that out then".

John and Joseph O'Meara took out the Father and Son Trophy unchallenged this year. While dad John had a steady 36 points, Joseph put a scare through the team by picking up the visitor's Bradman for the day. Not one to big note himself, Joseph quietly slipped away leaving John to pick up both their trophy and the silly Bradman's hat!

Fines of the Day

Wal Hill	Did cause Stretch to over sleep this morning thereby leaving Lizards without beer for most of the morning
Peter Symonds	Today's caterer did provide for our luncheon round hamburger patties and square bread rolls. How very gauche!!!
Garry Bird	On the way to Lizards this morning did boast to the dobber about how well he played at Calderwood on a holiday last month
Geoff Warren	Was heard to say "You can tell Jim Small isn't here today. You can hear the galahs singing"
Peter Kiely	Our next President did confess to a group of members today that he had never read the unwritten constitution, nor did he intend to
