JANUARY 2015

Welcome to the Dennis Castle Challenge!

Glenn and Gary Castle are again hosting the Dennis Castle Challenge in memory of their father and our well remembered member Dennis Castle. At a Father & Son Day a couple of years ago Dennis stood proudly at the head of a pyramid of four generations of Castles – surely an achievement that will be hard to top. He was always quick to share a joke and sometimes be the butt of it. Keep hitting them straight Dennis...

So impressive was his round that Jim Small described it as the best of his life. And it's hard to argue with him – 47 points is hard to top, particularly for those with a well established handicap. It certainly puts to bed his claim that he can't notch a score off his 21 handicap. We hope you boasted long and loud at Mangrove Mountain Jim, and don't forget, you've got plenty of years left in you to repeat the effort!

Wayne Walker and Glen Mathieson made the most of their first appearances at Lizards, both crossing the tape with 44 points to their names. Wayne took the trophy by a nose, but he had to score 25 points on the back nine to do it! Both gentlemen picked up nearest the pin prizes on the way as well.

Another Lizards virgin was Damien Stevens-Jones. While he was somewhat blown off the park by the other visitors he didn't go away empty handed, picking up a NTP and a longest drive.

Kyle Wilson scored his first podium visit as a member – unfortunately it was to pick up the Bradman's trophy. I'd like to say it was a close run race but I'd be lying – he was 3 shots clear of the next lowest score. Not so easy now you're up against the real golfers eh Kyle?

Another month, another new member – this time we welcome Mason Hiini to our ranks. After the usual vain attempt to entertain us with a poem, he was given Chur-bro Kiwi kwiz, along with some sustenance (BBQ sauce flavoured lamington) and a refreshing ale. He made it through well enough to be voted in as a member. Welcome Mason – may your association with our club be a long one.

Jamberoo Update

Neil Winterton has confirmed accommodation with the pub for 27-29 March 2015 as well as booking us in for dinner on the balcony on Saturday night. We're not quite sure where we'll be playing on the 27th but Calderwood is booked for the 28th & 29th. Further details at today's meeting.
