APRIL 2015

Welcome To Postie Memorial Day

(Sponsored by John O'Meara)

Another month another memorial day, this time for one of the club's best loved stalwarts, Gordon 'Postie' Donald. His love of this club is probably best summed up by his Grand daughter, Vanessa Smythe...

"God he loved to play, one of the last things that he ever told me as he lay dying in his bed was that being Lizards Treasurer for 20 odd years was one of his greatest achievements and he was so very very upset about the fact that he had been made 'Honorary' Treasurer, in fact it was the only time I ever remember seeing him cry. He loved to play and he loved his mates, I still remember as a child asking what he was doing on the weekend and him saying "It's Lizards Day, pet" and off he would go."

Cheers, Postie.

RAYNER MEMORIAL DAY, with 19 Lizards and 1 visitor, produced the following results:

March saw the first win by Gary Castle in living memory, or at least since before May 2002. This 13 year hiatus has been littered with 2nd places and Bradmans, along with the odd best front and back nines. Will he wait another 13 years for his next win? Only time will tell.

Dave Dunworth has been motoring along of late, and he was only pipped for another win on a count-back. The handicapper has docked him another 3 shots, so let's see how he handles it on the run home to June.

Neatly bookending his brother's feats at the top of the heap, Glenn Castle limped home with only 28 points to take out the Bradman. He was joined on the dais by the unfortunate Dave Leonard, who took the visitor's prize by default.

Jamberoo Recap

The 2015 Jamberoo trip was another raging success which had us playing in perfect conditions over the three days. Shoalhaven Heads was deemed a success despite its narrow fairways and resort style greens. Calderwood Valley was in pristine condition, although the bunkers were closed due to a mid-week drenching that had failed to drain.

The Saturday night dinner was as good as ever, and we were treated to a specially baked Black Forest cake to celebrate Hart's 73rd and Wal's 65th birthdays. Despite some antics involving Ivan, mops & spliffs the Lizards were well behaved and have been invited back next year!
