JUNE 2015

Welcome To Vice President's Day (Final of the Lindenberg)

Our Vice-President this year has been the softly spoken David Copeland. David has been with us for some time now, but this is his first foray into the "committee". During the next twelve months he's sure to find out just how much power the president of this great club has! As always we thank our outgoing leader for his efforts, humour and goodwill and welcome in the new blood. Best of luck Dave!

PRESIDENT'S DAY, with 25 Lizards and 5 visitors, produced the following results:

John O'Meara (that's pronounced o-mar-a) has taken a real shine to the new course layout. His 42 points was 5 clear of 2nd place, and 13 better than the day's average score of 29. It was actually 4 years to the day since his previous win, which undoubtedly made it even sweeter.

Gary Castle is enjoying some late season form, although he may have left his run a little late for the club championship. Still, 37 points on the resort course is nothing to sneeze at.

Glen Batkin has been taking a lead from his beloved Sea Eagles of late. His recent spate of Bradman winning scores is right in line with the performance of his favoured NRL team! Which of them will climb off the bottom of the ladder first?

AGM Update

Neil Winterton has booked Balgowlah RSL for Tuesday 7 July. The meeting will be in the Terrace Room at about 7pm, followed by a meal in the Bistro for those who want to eat.

Health Update

Hart Schwarz is now residing at the Opal Seaside Aged Care Facility. Visiting is available anytime at 184 Garden Street Warriewood. Phone calls can be put through to him on 9910 7600. He is in the dementia ward and is 'locked in'.

Andy Warner has had the operation on his back and will not be at Lizards in June. Neil is hopeful of a further update at today's meeting.
