NOVEMBER 2015

Welcome To Morgan Mooney Day

Michael & Chris front up again for another round of Morgan-Mooney madness. As usual, the multiplier event will be running so grab yourself a partner and pray like hell that he doesn't card too many wipes. There are some good prizes up for grabs including some nice ports that are at least 10 years old. In addition to their normal assistant treasurer and editor duties, the guys have also provided the delicious food for today. Great work fellas!

PUTTING COMPETITION	Chris Mooney - 31 putts

Don't know what was in the water but David Copeland drank an awful lot of it. He finished on 44 points – 7 clear of the second place getter. And despite a few recent podium finishes (including a win in June) he seems to be the handicapper's pet, as his handicap has gone up over the period. Oh well Dave, enjoy it while you can – the Presidency seems to be doing you good.

Speaking of second place, Michael “Bridesmaid” Morgan filled it for October. This should come as no surprise to Lizards historians, since he’s done the same in Mar ’15, Jan ’14, Aug ’13, Dec ’11 and Nov ’11. In fact we have to go back to Dec ’10 to find his last win. Time to pick up your game Michael.

Phil Lamplough has now recorded 3 wins over the past 4 months, which has got to be some sort of record. Long serving club members can’t remember such a run of form since Andy Warner was handicapper.

Garry Bird limped across the line with only 24 points and in doing so earned his first Bradman prize in 3 years. Strangely enough, the hat still fit!

Chris Mooney had an average score on the day but certainly didn’t leave empty handed. He picked up a Best Front Nine, Longest Drive, Nearest the Pin and won the Putting Competition to boot.

A big shoutout to Glenn ‘Stretch’ Castle who has chosen to celebrate his 65th birthday with us today. Shake his hand, buy him a beer but whatever you do don’t ask him whether Manly made the finals this year. Have a great day Stretch!
