DECEMBER 2015

Welcome To Christmas Carroll Day

This cup is one of the most coveted trophies on the Lizards calendar. Not only because we only get one chance a year to get our hands on it, but also because of its versatility. Over the years it has been used as a peg holder in someone's laundry, a shaving mirror and one memorable 12 months as a coin holder. This caused Jim Small to re-plate it and threaten physical harm to anyone putting anything harder than a cotton wool bud in it! We're also hoping to have the original donor Dawson Carroll here to present it in person. Don't forget it's also bring a gift receive a gift day.

MORGAN MOONEY DAY, with 17 Lizards and 4 visitors, produced the following results:

STABLEFORD MULTIPLIER WINNING PAIR

Garry Bird LM and Phil Lamplough - 73 points on count-back

Well it seems that Michael "No Longer The Bridesmaid" Morgan took last month's grilling on his form to heart, pulling out his best score in a couple of years to take first place in his own co-sponsored competition. He also teamed up with Ivan Tiltins to revisit their famous 1-2 finish from April 2006.

Phil Lamplough has now recorded 4 wins over the past 5 months, which smashes his record from last month of 3 from 4. Over this period his handicap has only ranged from 26-28, which will surely be explained by handicapper Manfred Wagner when he arrives today.

Visitor Aaron Redmond made the most of his day, bagging a 2nd place in Visitors, Nearest the Pin on the 9th and Longest Drive on the 1st. Has Phil finally got some competition?

A special mention to our Stableford Multiplier winning pair of Garry Bird LM and Phil Lamplough, who seemed more surprised than anyone when their names were read out at the meeting. There were a few other pairs nipping at their heels but they held out long enough to claim the bottles of port.

Peter Kiely has confirmed that we have a booking for next year's trip up north. The Lemon Tree Passage Motel has us pencilled in for the 4th, 5th and 6th of November.

Fines of the Day

Stretch	Was left in charge of the shed but was seen bludging in his ute and not keeping the eskies up to date.
Vic Rulewski	Wearing his mum's bowling shorts to Lizards
Garry Bird LM	Secreting the mustard in a hidden bag for use by his group and those following only
David Copeland	Surrounded himself with a past president and a solicitor in his idea of a "power group"
Stretch	Claiming to be 65 when he looks like 75 and smells like 85
