JULY 2017

Welcome to Treasurer's Day

Welcome to our new President Kyle Wilson. Kyle has mentioned that he'll be upholding the tradition of the monthly President's message and will have one ready this month, as long as he gets back from his dirt bike riding trip in time.

The role of President is an evolving one as John proved last season, so we look forward with bated breath to see what innovations Kyle bestows on us. As always we wish you a successful tenure Kyle.

VICE PRESIDENT'S DAY, with 21 Lizards and 10 visitors, produced the following results:

Winners of Father & Son Rob O'Brien & Adam O'Brien - 78 points

Talk about a long time between drinks, Matthew Castle who has been in and out as a member over the years decided that 12½ years was long enough between wins, so he cracked off 41 points in less than perfect conditions to take out the member's prize. Got anything planned for the next win in 2030 Matt?

Rob O'Brien brought his son Adam to help out in the Father and Son event. What he didn't tell anyone was that Adam has been to some golf clinics and has improved his game since this time last year. In fact the improvement was good enough to see him score 50 points, which was more than instrumental in seeing them pick up the trophy. Rob only had to pitch in 28!

Well you can call Stephen Hill a lot of things, but consistent isn't one of them. His 47 points would normally have been enough to secure the visitor's prize, but Adam O'Brien put that one to bed. Stephen's last outing at the Lizards saw him come in with 20 points and he rightfully got a shot back. Must have been a good shot because it gave him an extra 27 points!

The 2016/17 AGM was held on Tuesday 4th July at the Balgowlah RSL. The following committee members were elected for the 2017/18 season:

President: Kyle Wilson
Vice President: Rob O'Brien

Fines of the Day

Matt Small	For comparing Wal's cooking of the Lizards' sausages to the burning of Joan of Arc at the stake
Greg Mooney	For attempting to tee up on the first tee using a pencil
David Copeland	After witnessing Greg Mooney attempting to tee off using a pencil suggested that Greg was merely practising his draw
Jim Small	For having more shots than a hooker at a party on the front nine
David Copeland	For playing 18 holes of golf with his fly open
