OCTOBER 2017

Welcome to Castle Hill Plate Day

Wal & Stretch would like to welcome you to what is sure to be another successful edition of Castle Hill Plate Day. While both gentlemen successfully contribute to the smooth running of our monthly events – Wal with his breakfasts and Stretch with the grog & Hole-in-One comp – you can never be sure exactly what you'll get from either.

Rumour has it the putting comp will be back this year – well done guys, keep the innovations coming and most of all keep us guessing.

WARNER DAY, with 18 Lizards and 6 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS

Keith McDonald - 39 points off a handicap of 28

2nd LIZARDS

Mason Hiini - 37 points on count-back off a handicap of 26

CUSTARD BALL WINNING TEAM

Michael Porter, John Wilson and Kyle Wilson with 43 points

Keith McDonald has been boasting for a few months about his upcoming trip to climb Mt Kilimanjaro, and his efforts to achieve peak fitness before the trip by walking to the pub instead of bludging a lift. He took it up a notch in September by walking back home from the pub as well. It's obviously paid off as he had the endurance to stave off all competitors on Warner Day. We hope his trip to the Uhuru Peak is equally successful.

Despite playing a fair number of poor shots, the good outweighed the bad by enough to help Mason Hiini claim second place in Lizards. Still flush from his hole in one, Mason was pleasant company, and only mentioned the All-Blacks about a dozen times.

Our well respected president Kyle Wilson was surprised to see his name pop up as the winner of the Best Scratch Score, as were a number of A grade members. And the surprises didn't stop there. After announcing the winner of one of the NTP prizes as "A. Skinner", Kyle waited in vain for the said person to present for the prize, only to be told what it means.

In scenes not seen for a while, Ashton Castle (Son of Matthew, Grandson of Glenn, Great-Nephew of Gary) applied for and was accepted as a Cadet Member of the Lizards Golf Club. Congratulations Ashton – we hope to see you convert this to a full membership when you reach 18 years of age!

Lemon Tree Passage Update

Our annual pilgrimage up North is fast approaching and final names are being taken today. The itinerary is:

Friday 3 rd Nov	Pacific Dunes	12:10 hitoff
Saturday 4 th Nov	Horizons	12:00 hitoff
Sunday 5 th Nov	Tanilba Bay	10:00 hitoff

Total cost is $320 pp and includes carts all 3 days, accommodation Fri & Sat, breakfast on Sat & Sun and dinner vouchers for Fri and Sat nights. What a bargain!

Fines of the Day

Chris Mooney	Did arrive and describe the official committee, going through their onerous tasks, as Huey, Dewey, and Louie
The President	When handed his custard ball, on the long established and respected custard ball day, did state: "What the fuck is this?"
Wal Hill	Was seen talking to the birds when we all thought he was out with the pixies
David Copeland	Arrived late, whinged about his injury, ate all the food and bagged the President's hat
Troy Squires	Was seen in the car park removing a brand new pair of golf shoes from their box. Once he ensured they matched the colour of his trousers he proceeded to the first tee.
