APRIL 2018

Welcome to Postie Memorial Day

(Sponsored by John O'Meara)
(Quarter Finals of the Lindenberg)

Today we honour the memory of Gordon Donald (LM). It seems like only last month that he was walking amongst us, but it has in fact been 11½ years. We always knew it was the third Sunday of the month at Avalon when he welcomed us with his infectious grin and friendly words. As well as serving as President in 1973, he was Secretary from 1974-76, Captain-Handicapper in 1967 and Treasurer from 1975 to 1979 and again from 1989 up until his passing in 2005. We'll tee off this morning with the memory of his motto in our ears – "Good Golfing, fellas"

RAYNER MEMORIAL DAY, with 21 Lizards and 2 visitors, produced the following results:

Garry Castle, our reliable supplier of hot dogs has had a knack of managing his handicap within a tight range no matter what score he comes in with for some time now. Anyone who's played against Garry & his brother will attest to how difficult it is to win a lottery ticket off them. Unfortunately, his winning March score of 42 points has seen his handicap drop to within sight of A grade, at least for now.

Poor old Dave Dunworth hasn't been able to crack it for a win since he rejoined our ranks back in 2012. Mind you, he's been keeping his whistle wet with Bradman downers when it suits him. His best score in a while (41 points) again saw him fall short. Maybe next time?

New visitor Sean Milliss had his handicap estimated well, scoring 37 points to take out the visitor's prize. He easily accounted for Lyndon Pollock in a small field.

There were a few tight results in the opening round of the Lindenberg, and some not so tight ones. Dave Dunworth walked away with his match against Bradman contender Wall Hill by a convincing 8 & 6, however the easiest win went to Garry Bird LM after an ailing Chris Mooney LM failed to return to the course after 10 holes, succumbing to flu. Best of luck to today's Quarter Finalists.

Fines of the Day

Stretch	Wearing a series of counterfeit Lizards shirts on the Jamberoo trip
Michael Morgan	After flogging the hapless Michael Porter in the Lindenberg did go into recovery mode, wiping several of the last holes
David Copeland	Arriving at the Official Lizards Table sporting socks and thongs
Wal Hill	Did give Dave Dunworth putting lessons. Two holes later Wal lined up a 2 inch putt and missed by an inch
President "Trump" Wilson	Despite his hi-tech blue visibility shoes, he attended Lizards in his Gilligan's Island shorts, circa 1960. (NB. Gilligan's Island actually ran from September 26, 1964, to April 17, 1967 – Ed.)
