Welcome to President's Day

(Semi Finals of the Lindenberg)

As he closes in on the end of his tenure, today is our chance to reflect on President Kyle "Trump" Wilson's activities since he was inaugurated last July. He's lost the Lizard twice, chosen to work instead of attending day one of the Jamberoo trip, been fined for

1. not knowing what the custard ball was for and then playing with it for two months
2. wearing Gilligan's Island shorts
3. driving the porcelain bus when his lift arrived to pick him up for Lizards

But overall most members would agree that he provided us with good leadership and a lot of fun. Thanks for your efforts Kyle, and keep up the good work.

POSTIE MEMORIAL DAY, with 21 Lizards and 4 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS		Peter Kiely - 39 points off a handicap of 22
2nd LIZARDS		Keith McDonald - 38 points off a handicap of 24

Peter Kiely spent most of his round bemoaning the fact that he'd made too many errors on the day. "39 points is not good enough" he proclaimed, before lumbering off the course in a wash of self-pity. But good enough it was, providing him with his first win in over 5 years and causing his mood to change to one of surprise and joy. Have more faith PK!

Keith McDonald continued his strong recent form with another 38 points. Could he be planning a late season run on the Club Championship? He's certainly in the mix.

Sean Milliss and Lyndon Pollock provided us with the first "Double Membership Application" in living memory. After a unique simultaneous poem reading followed by proving their prowess at downing downers supplemented with raw eggs they progressed through the voting stage with ease and were presented with their Lizards zac. Well done guys – may your time with our club be a fruitful one!

Lindenberg Update

And then there were four. Approaching the business end of the comp, Ivan the Green, Rob O'Brien and a pair of Castles find themselves in the Lindenberg semi-finals. Who moves forward from this point is anyone's guess; it may come down to the severity of any hangovers being experienced on the day. Could we see a couple of rooks in the final?

Fines of the Day

Kyle Wilson	When Mick Porter arrived to collect Kyle this morning he was driving the porcelain bus
David Copeland	Was seen meticulously assessing and cataloguing his tee collection prior to hit off
Ivan Tiltins	Did refer to visitor Dan Egan as "that prick over there"
Wal Hill	Did ask PK if Trump was Kyles real surname
Glenn & Gary Castle	Boasting about their genetic superiority after winning their Lindenberg matches
