JUNE 2018

Welcome to Vice President's Day

(Finals of the Lindenberg)
(Father and Son Day)

Rob O'Brien has had a relatively quiet tenure as Vice President due to President Kyle Trump being present for most of his official duties. So on that basis he'll be a relatively unknown quantity should he be elected to the top post at the AGM next month. He has followed a well trodden path into his current role in that he wasn't present at the meeting that saw him elected, but no matter – most Lizards Lynchings have produced successful Presidents. No one expects this one to be any different!

PRESIDENT'S DAY, with 22 Lizards and 2 visitors, produced the following results:

1st LIZARDS	Kyle Wilson - 43 points off a handicap of 26
2nd LIZARDS	Matthew Castle - 37 points off a handicap of 21
1st VISITORS	Troy Squires - 36 points off a handicap of 23

Results of the Semi Finals of the Lindenberg

Glenn Castle	d	Ivan Tiltins	3 & 1

President Kyle "Trump" Wilson put in a special effort in May. Not just because it was President's Day but because as the donor he had bought the prize and he liked it so much he wanted to drink it. "Why buy a second bottle of spiced rum for myself when I can just win this one" he was heard to say as he strolled his way to a six shot victory.

Matthew Castle decided to drop in with son Ashton a month early to get some practice for Father and Son day. The tactic worked well on the day, with Matt coming in second place and Ashton picking up a Best Front Nine. Let's just hope they haven't peaked a month too early.

He spends a lot of time at both ends of the ledger (ie first place or last place) but unfortunately Dave Copeland has been doing more of the latter of late. May's Bradman was his third in 13 months, and we have to go back nearly three years for his last win. Perhaps the handicapper will look kindly on his plight.

Lindenberg Update

It was billed as "The Battle of the Hangovers" and that's pretty well how it turned out. Stretch arrived looking fresh and fit whereas Ivan's condition could best be described as "dusty". Sobriety won out over alcohol 3 & 1. In the other match things weren't so clear and so it was on the scoreboard, with Rob O'Brien holding on long enough to outpoint Gary Castle 2 & 1.

Best of luck to our 2017/18 finalists Rob O'Brien and Glenn Castle. May the clearest head win!

AGM Update

The committee has decided that this year's AGM will be held at the Chatswood RSL, 446 Victoria Ave, Chatswood on Tuesday 3rd July at 7PM. Parking is limited but the train station is conveniently located.

Fines of the Day

Sean Milliss	Ambushing Lizards at the Hornsby Inn with his newly acquired Zac, demanding beer
Wal Hill	Recycling last month's raffle ticket and not winning
Dave Copeland	Was caught sniffing a suspicious white powder on the 4 th . He claimed it was a special lawyer's mix of cocaine
Wal Hill	Had to go to the shops whilst cooking breakfast so handed over the tongs to Ivan. Wal still managed to burn the bacon
Stretch	Arrived at the official table grinning like a Cheshire Cat after beating Ivan in the Lindenberg. He was heard to say "Well, the cream certainly rose to the top today"
