JULY 2018

Welcome to Treasurer's Day

Welcome to our new President Rob O'Brien. Dispensing with his customary dental duties, Rob was duly voted in as our President at the recent AGM. He has promised to uphold the traditions of the role, as long as someone can tell him exactly what they are. As always we wish you a successful tenure Rob.

Winners of Father & Son

Glenn & Ashton Castle - 74 points

Glenn Castle really scooped the pool last month, winning on the day, taking out the Father and Son Trophy with grandson Ashton, winning the Lindenberg against Rob O'Brien and bagging a Longest Drive. Rarely has such a dominant performance been witnessed!

Phil Lamplough was hot on Stretch's heel but ultimately fell one point short. It's good to see Phil getting back some form after a time out with injury.

Kerry Thomas made his first visit to the prize rostrum with a respectable 36 points of a 36 handicap. We trust this won't be your last visit to the Lizards Kerry.

Ben Sainsbury, another newcomer was the perfect partner to accompany 2017/18

Bradman winner Wal Hill in a rousing rendition of the "Bradman Chorus". They looked like the perfect pairing in their silly hats!
