FEBRUARY 2022

Welcome to Foundation/Life Member's Day

(Qualifying for Lindenberg)

75 years ago LEON LIST, licensee of the Steyne Hotel, Manly founded The Lizards Golf Club. On Saturday 6th February 2021 eight brave golfers went back to where it all started to celebrate this monumental event and kick off the club's 75 year celebrations. Today we celebrate our founding fathers as well as acknowledging our current living and active Life Members.

Winners of the Stableford Multiplier Competition:

Ivan Tiltins and Michael Porter 89 points

Michael Porter has had a number of bridesmaid's rounds over the past few years, but hasn't cracked it for the major prize since April 2017. In those days the closest we'd come to having a lockdown was if there had been a bomb scare. After picking up the day's bottle of scotch he's now the Lizards 2nd lowest marker after his mate Ivan Tiltins.

Speaking of Ivan, he was teamed with Michael Porter in the multiplier event with the pair of them scoring an impressive 89 points. This left Michael with the dilemma of having to hold two bottles of scotch while simultaneously giving a thumbs up to acknowledge his victories.

John O'Meara (that's pronounced O-Mar-A) didn't set the course alight, but did make a significant contribution to the day by way of a contribution of an only slightly used set of knives for the club to use. Apparently there is no truth to the rumour that the knives were one of Tony Della's trophies from 25 years ago!

Ivan Tiltins can be seen here accepting the knives on behalf of the club in the absence of president Garry Bird LM who was on a fishing trip.

Fines of the Day

Ivan Tiltins	When asked what his visitor's surname was he replied "some woggy name"
Chris Mooney LM	Complained that our chef was not as good looking as the soccer cooks. Eddie the chef redeemed himself by being an excellent cook
Monsta	Tried to order breakfast from the soccer girls – that was his excuse anyway
Chris Mooney LM	Took so long to hit his shot on the 9 th tee he put PK off his conversation
Brian Ellis	Bringing zero alcohol beer to Lizards – what was he thinking? It was described as tasting like weak dishwater with a hint of lemon zest

Jamberoo Update (4-6 March 2022)
