MAY 2023

Welcome to President's Day

Jim Buckenham took on the position of President last July after Garry Bird LM had led the club through a couple of turbulent Covid years. It's fair to say that Jim has shown us that there's more than one way to run a post-match meeting, some more successful than others. In any case they've all been entertaining! Thanks for your sober stewardship for the past 10 months Jim, and make sure you enjoy your time as IPP.

HIINI / BYRNE DAY, with 19 Lizards and 2 visitors, produced the following results:

Kyle Wilson had his annual day of fun by taking out the win in April by a clear 4 points. Some days Kyle sees the red mist rising and it can put him off his game, but that was not the case today. He also won his Lindenberg match against Jim comfortably which will see him come up against mate Rob 'The Dentist' O'Brien in the semi-final.

Sean Milliss managed to complete the round (not like a few months ago) and it paid off, seeing him take out 2nd place with 40 points off 26. Sean also held on for a tight 1 up win over Garry Bird LM in the Lindenberg, although there was some conjecture over whether they should have continued onto the 19th hole!

David Hinton has been to Lizards at least three times now, and we know this because he's had three wins on Jan/Feb 2022 and now March 2023. Can anyone sense a poem coming on in the near future?
