MAY 2025

Welcome to President's Day

(Semi Finals of the Lindenberg)

Pat Byrne took on the position last July and has done a fine job of (nearly always) maintaining his composure – especially compared to other current world Presidents – wrangling the younger generations in the classroom was clearly excellent preparation (although those days are now behind him). Pat, many thanks for your leadership and, after next month, enjoy being the IPP!

POSTIE MEMORIAL DAY, with 16 Lizards and 1 visitor, produced the following results:

1st Lizards	Mark Pearson - 40 points off a handicap of 2
2nd Lizards	Sean Milliss - 36 points on count-back off a handicap of 22
1st Visitors	Dean Muriti - 31 points off a handicap of 14
Best Scratch	Jim Buckenham - 18 points on count-back off a handicap of 18

Best Front Nine	Michael Morgan LM - 19 points on count-back off a handicap of 24

By all reports another stunning day at the Royal in April with the members (and visitor) all enjoying the day and a couple of Lindenberg quarter finals being played.

Mark Pearson had a stunning 6 birdie day, leading the field home with a solid 40 points and at the same time winning his Lindenberg match to progress to the semi-finals. Sean Milliss snuck into second place being one of three players to come home with 36 points. Dean Muriti enjoyed the benefits of a visitor's prize for his 31 points and Brian Ellis LM picked up the MITM prize.

I'd be tired too after making all those birdies!

And well done to Sean and Dean!

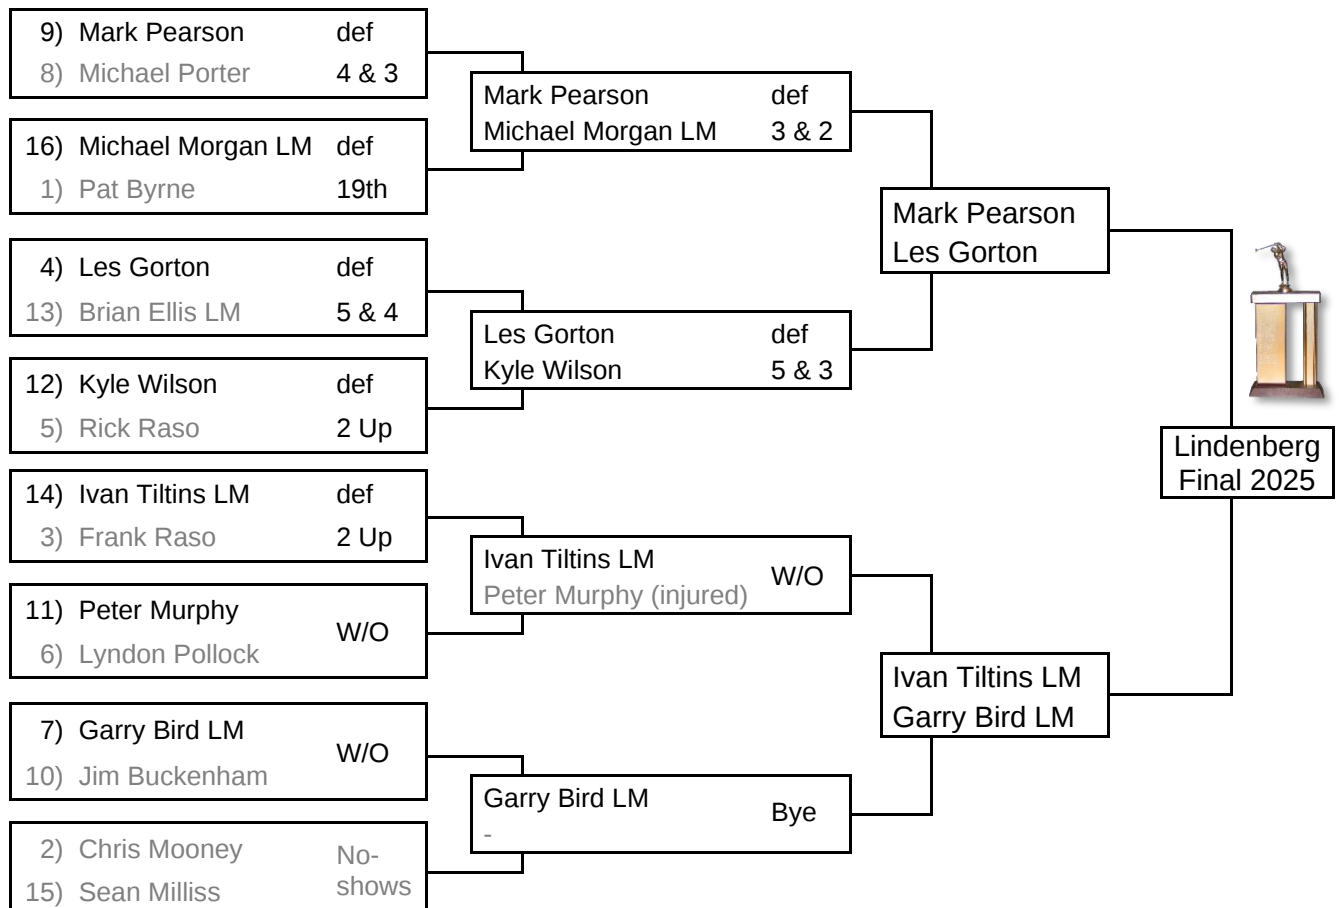

Fines of the Day

- Michael Morgan LM Using his dogs to attract 18 year-old blondes who all wanted to pat them – he's still quivering with excitement
- Chris Mooney LM When the Dobber asked for some sunblock, offered to oil his thighs
- Michael Porter Credit Fine bought the Dobber a beer before hit off so he wouldn't get fined
- Michael Porter Never trust the Dobber! (just kidding)
- Chris Mooney LM Mark stating he was older and Chris replying he was better looking
- Mark Pearson
- Ivan Tiltins LM Arguing about the length of their putts – at least we hope they were talking about putts!
- Sean Milliss

Howard Lindenberg Trophy

The final two pairings battle it out in the Semi Finals this month. Good luck to all!

Something quite disturbing going on here...

Then again, not really that disturbing for a Lizard...
