NOVEMBER 2025

Welcome to Morgan Mooney Day

Welcome to the 27th instalment of this spring event with esteemed hosts Michael Morgan LM and Chris Mooney LM. The Morgan/Mooney Stableford Multiplier competition will feature today with the sponsors taking out last year's competition with a triumphant 100 points! Remember, your partner's triple bogey is your problem now.

JIM BUCKENHAM DAY, with 17 Lizards and 1 visitor, produced these results:

Nice Garry!

Putting Porter

A pleasant day and Garry Bird LM made it his second win of 2025 with a solid 38 points for victory, just pipping Kyle Wilson also on 38 points.

Michael Porter repeated his on-green display, taking out the putting competition for the second year running!

Fines of the Day

Ivan Tiltins LM Is now using a burner phone to avoid everyday detection

Ric Raso When asked to give a hand to put up the gazebo proceeded to clap

The President Drooling in the vicinity of the BBQ

Sean Milliss Inviting a fly into his nasal passage – after having a look around the fly self-ejected

Other Business

December Dress Code

The December monthly event will require the wearing of a Hawaiian shirt – so write this on your calendar / diary / back of your hand.

Christmas Gift

Our Christmas event is also when members and visitors “Bring a Gift” and “Receive a Gift”. So, take this as an early reminder to bring something to put on the pile!

PLEASE NOTE!

Lemon Tree Wrap-up

Another great trip up north was enjoyed by all that attended (see results on next page). The weather was perfect with the rain staying away. Peter Kiely once again did a sterling job organising the accommodation, competitions, and prizes.

The Raso bus was a welcome addition (thanks to Raso/Murphy for the driving) with some expert packing to get that number of eskies into one vehicle. Below is PK's report...

Thanks to the 12 diehard Lizards and a welcome visit from Dave Dunworth. Everybody was on good behaviour - even Jim - so no pest was awarded. Thanks to Pete Murphy and Les Gorton for trophy donations. The Ambrose was won by Ivan, Mason, Pete and Dave who were pretty ordinary but scrambled well for a 3 under result mainly due to their non-playing captain (myself 😊). As always great camaraderie meant a great weekend.
